

The Shelby County Shindig Barbeque Cook-off is an annual joint fundraising partnership between the Shelby County Art Council and the South Shelby Chamber of Commerce. The proceeds of the event go toward both organizations' programs that are committed to making Shelby County a Great place to Live, Work and Play.

Shelby County Arts Council:

Energized by the belief that the arts have the power to inspire individuals and rouse communities, the Shelby County Arts Council has promoted visual and performing arts throughout the county since 2005.

Our mission is to nurture, support and promote the arts and cultural opportunities in Shelby County, Alabama. Our outreach programs, classes and performances are the outlets to meet our mission. In 2016-2017 we have:

- Provided 22 Shelby County Schools with the ArtAbilities therapeutic art program for over special needs students
- Expanded our programs at Juvenile Detention Center for classes to at-risk teenagers that include painting, photography and creative writing.
- Hosted the "Writing Our Stories" anti-bullying creative writing program at Columbiana Middle School and Montevallo Middle School
- Hosted Eat, Drink and Read: 6 Alabama writers for public book readings and discussions
- Hosted 10 local and regional artists Gallery Exhibits, providing the artists a venue to showcase their talent
- Hosted over 2,000 patrons to our Performance Venue providing top-notch, quality entertainment in a wholesome atmosphere

The South Shelby Chamber of Commerce

Celebrating its 21th Year of Service to businesses in Shelby County, the Chamber focuses on offering programs to promote Member businesses and economic opportunities. Membership with the South Shelby Chamber is designed to assist businesses with Growth, Education and Marketing. From featured speakers at the monthly luncheon who inform and inspire professionals -to- networking opportunities at the Monthly Morning Mixers and Professional -to- professional development educational seminars, the Chamber is always on the side of your business.

The South Shelby Chamber of Commerce Scholarship Fund is a way for this Chamber to invest in our future workforce. The Chamber will award five - $1,000 scholarships to graduating seniors from the high schools in the southern region of Shelby County.

We ask that you consider being a 2017 Sponsor for the Shelby County Shindig.
