

The Shelby County Shindig Barbeque and Blues is an annual fundraising event for the Shelby County Art Council. The proceeds of the event go toward our organizations' programs that are committed to making Shelby County a Great place to Live, Work and Play.

Shelby County Arts Council:

Energized by the belief that the arts have the power to inspire individuals and rouse communities, the Shelby County Arts Council has promoted visual and performing arts throughout the county since 2005. A fully functioning 501c3 not-for-profit organization, we are celebrating 18 years of service to Shelby County and the southeast region.

Our mission is to nurture, support and promote the arts and cultural opportunities in Shelby County, Alabama. Our outreach programs, classes and performances are the outlets to meet our mission. Highlights for 2017-2018 include:

- Providing 18 Shelby County Schools with the ArtAbilities therapeutic art program for special needs students.
- Expanding our programs at the Shelby County Juvenile Detention Center for weekly classes to at-risk teenagers that include painting, photography, drum circle therapy and creative writing.
- Hosting the "Writing Our Stories" anti-bullying creative writing program at Columbiana Middle School, Montevallo Middle School and Vincent Middle School.
- Hosting 10 local and regional artists Gallery Exhibits, providing the artists a venue to showcase their talent
- Hosting over 3,000 patrons to our Black Box Theater Performance Venue providing top-notch, quality entertainment.
- Providing Art Education Classes taught by professional artists and musicians.
- Co-Hosting Jazz in the Park in Alabaster, Alabama.

We are excited about our future in Shelby County. The collaboration with Shelby County, the City of Columbiana and our organization will result in a new home in 2019 for the Shelby County Arts Center at Old Mill Square in Columbiana, Alabama. We invite you to learn more about this endeavor on our website: shelbycountyarscouncil.com

We appreciate your consideration of being a sponsor for the 2018 Shelby County Shindig BBQ & Blues fundraising event. Feel free to contact our office 205-669-0044 with any questions.

Sincerely,

Bruce Andrews, Executive Director
